

Helsinki Legal History Series

University of Helsinki 2024

Identities and Legal History

This seminar series, which is also a master-level course, is primarily intended for students of law, history, and social sciences but is open to all who are interested. Be sure to register on SiSu to earn the course credits.

24.09.

Emily Prifogle

(University of Michigan)
"Making Rural America:
A Legal History"

08.10.

Anne Orford

(University of Melbourne)
"The Promises and Perils of Interdisciplinary Encounters"

05.11.

Luisa Brunori

(CNRS Paris)
"The Identity of Partners and the Anonymity of Capital in Transatlantic Trade during the Early Modern Period"

10.12.

Pedro Cardim

(NOVA University Lisbon)
"Corporations and Jurisdictional
Culture: Exploring the Political Identity of Early Modern Iberian Monarchies."

UNIVERSITY OF HELSINKI

E Euro
— Storie

